SYNERGY
BY VIRGINIA LANGLEY

Milliken

synergy

In nature, there is an energy like where the ocean meets the sand—a synergy occurs—working together they turn the tides of time. Similarly, when the wind meets the leaves and branches of a tree, a synergy creates a rhythmic energy together, to and fro they sway in a dance. There is a natural synergy everywhere, in every ocean, in all of nature. It is in the air we breathe, in and out, in rhythmic flow, just as our heart beats by a natural synergy. When we tune into this natural force and harmonize with it, you will find energy and serenity, all at once. A synergy that unites, it is serene and it is refreshing.
