LIVE STREAM

The Journey of Water, Retold.

How water shapes and transforms nature is a brehtaking phenomenon that only proves that true beauty lies within what is most essential. Water gently courses through every creek and crevice, into river valleys as it trickles into the vastness of the deep blue; at times, it moves with the strongest torrent, gushing and crashing onwards with much passion and fervor. An infinite cycle so systematically tuned, water is an unpresumptuous art unto itself. Its form and rhythm are inspiring... like a painting interpretable in a million different ways, each combination is a unique creation, a timeless story of Earth waiting to be heard.

CREATE YOUR OWN FLOW

The Live Stream collection illustrates the beauty of water as it journeys on: First as GroundWater - a neutral palette that blends in effortlessly - gently sipping its way into the FlowRiver where its exquisite patterns materialize. At the BedRock is where its color contrasts flow and jive into one, awaiting the great WaterFall to fully unleash a harmony of accents.

We are thrilled to share this experience with you. How will you design yours?
